Department to Host Community Summit on Gun Violence
In the Wells-Goodfellow Neighborhood

The Metropolitan Police Department and the Police Executive Research Forum will host a Community Summit on Gun Violence in the Wells-Goodfellow neighborhood on Saturday, April 5, 2008, at Friendly Temple Church, 5508 Dr. Martin Luther King Drive, beginning at 9:00 A.M.

The Wells-Goodfellow neighborhood was selected as part of a U.S. Department of Justice grant to impact crime in a community. The goal of this project is to develop, implement and evaluate a comprehensive strategy developed specifically to meet the community's unique needs.

The Department is partnering with other local, state and federal agencies and organizations in an effort to help combat crime in the Wells-Goodfellow neighborhood. Chief Mokwa and members of the Department's senior command staff along with residents and community leaders will be in attendance.
