Parking Strictly Enforced At Busch Stadium
During 2007 Baseball Season

The Metropolitan Police Department will monitor and strictly enforce parking for security concerns around Busch Memorial Stadium during the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals 2007 baseball season.

The Department will monitor and strictly enforce parking violations within the security perimeter around Busch Stadium. The perimeter is Ninth Street on the west to Fourth Street on the east and Walnut on the north and Cerre on the south. Parking and through traffic will be limited within this perimeter, the Department will tow any illegally parked or suspicious vehicles.

The Department also encourages fans to use MetroLink and allow extra time when arriving for games.
