SLMPD Recruits to Volunteer at Ranken Jordan Hospital
Recruit Class 2012-01 will help with facility maintenance and visit with children

On Saturday, March 9, 2013, St. Louis Police Recruit Class 2012-01 will visit Ranken Jordan, a pediatric specialty hospital, to volunteer and complete their class project. The 26 Police Recruits will visit Ranken Jordan as a way to build relationships with the community they are preparing to serve.

The Recruits will visit the facility and spend the first hour cleaning and assisting with the general maintenance of the building. They will spend the second half of their visit with some of Ranken Jordan's patients and their families.

Ranken Jordan is a pediatric specialty hospital that provides a continuum of care for medically complicated children and their families. A majority of its patients have severe medical conditions.
