7th District Community Partnership Annual Officer of the Year Luncheon

P.O Kelli Swinton Named 7th District 2012 Officer of the Year

On Thursday, March 28, 2013, the 7th District will hold its 8th annual benefit luncheon at The Pageant, 6161 Delmar at 11:30 a.m. Police Officer Kelli Swinton will be recognized as the 2012 Officer of the Year. Twenty-one other officers will also be recognized for their accomplishments.

In 2012, Officer Swinton led the 7th District with 154 arrests and 131 assists, resulting in 69 felonies, 77 misdemeanors and 397 city charges. In addition, Officer Swinton wrote 178 traffic summons and 59 parking tags. She also handled 1,442 radio assignments and generated 199 I/Leads reports. Officer Swinton is professional and has a strong work ethic. She is dedicated to the department and the community.

Lt. Robert Ceriotti, who served in the 7th District until his untimely death in November 2012, will be recognized at the luncheon for his service to the community.

Dave McGinnis, Assistant Head Coach of the St. Louis Rams, is the keynote speaker for the event. Maggie Crane, Director of Communications for St. Louis City, will serve as Mistress of Ceremonies.

The 7th District Community Partnership is a group of residents and businesses in the 7th District whose focus is to support the Metropolitan Police Department, City of St. Louis via training programs, recognition for service and community events.
