Officers, Civilians and Citizens to be Honored at Awards Ceremony

The Metropolitan Police Department will hold an Awards Ceremony on Tuesday, February 28, 2012, at Harris-Stowe State University, 3026 Laclede Avenue at 7 p.m. to recognize the outstanding efforts of police officers, civilian employees and citizens for the commitment each has shown in making St. Louis a safer place.

The Distinguished Service Citation of Valor, the department's highest award will be presented along with the Meritorious Service Citation and Chief's Letter of Commendation. The department will also honor commissioned and civilian personnel who celebrated milestone years of service with the department in 2011. Two St. Louis citizens will also receive the Citizen Service Award for their role in solving a 2011 bank robbery.

WHO: Metropolitan Police Department Employees and St. Louis Citizens
WHAT: Metropolitan Police Department Awards Ceremony
WHERE: Harris-Stowe State University, 3026 Laclede Avenue
WHEN: Tuesday, February 28, 2012

Reporters and Photographers are welcome to attend. Please note, we ask that you please not print/air photos/video of officers who are not in uniform.
