Metropolitan Police Officers to Receive MADD Award

Award Recognizes Officers for their Role in Reducing Drunk Driving

Three officers from the Metropolitan Police Department, City of St. Louis ("the department") will be honored by the Gateway Affiliate of Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) for their efforts to prevent drunk driving. The "Heroes for Heroes" awards recognizes officers who best support MADD's mission to stop impaired driving.

Police Officers Raymond Collins, Vincent Hayden and William Moore were nominated as a result of their impressive work to combat impaired drivers. The three officers combined arrested nearly 100 individuals this year who were driving under the influence.

In total, 79 officers from throughout the metropolitan area will be recognized for their efforts to enforce DWI laws and prevent underage drinking.
