Metropolitan Police Department Remembers Fallen Officers
Memorial Breakfast honors officers killed in the line of duty

On Thursday, May 17, 2012, the Metropolitan Police Department, City of St. Louis and the St. Louis Police Foundation will host the 26th Annual Memorial Breakfast. The Memorial Breakfast honors the 164 police officers killed in the performance of duty from 1861 to 2012. The Memorial Breakfast begins at 7:30 a.m. at the America's Center.

Missouri Lieutenant Governor Peter Kinder will serve as the keynote speaker. Police Chief Dan Isom and Mayor Francis Slay will also address attendees. Art Holliday of KSDK will serve as Master of Ceremonies. More than 1100 invited guests will attend. This year's breakfast also coincides with National Police Week which is held May 13-19 and pays tribute to those officers in the United States who have lost their lives in service.

The Memorial Breakfast is sponsored by the St. Louis Police Foundation, a 501c3 organization that provides private support to the Metropolitan Police Department.
