St. Louis Police Officers to be Honored at Luncheon
St. Louis Regional Traffic Safety Council to Sponsor the Event

Four St. Louis Metropolitan Police Officers will be honored by the St. Louis Regional Traffic Safety Council on Thursday, December 18, 2008, at the Creve Coeur Government Center, 300 North New Ballas Road. The officers will be among the 20 individuals from 11 area law enforcement agencies who will be recognized for their work in keeping roadways safe through traffic enforcements and educational programs.

The officers are being honored for their outstanding traffic enforcement and removal of intoxicated drivers from the roads from October 2007 to September 20, 2008. Officer William Moore and his partner Officer Ray Collins are among those being honored. Together, these officers arrested 89 individuals for Driving While Intoxicated.

Officer Christina Attwood, a 15-year veteran of the Department, is being honored for her efforts which led to the removal of 24 intoxicated drivers from the road. Officer David Minor is also being honored for his outstanding work in removing 22 impaired drivers from St. Louis roads.
