

Cops Care Library

Ribbon Cutting

Cops Care Libraries are wooden structures dedicated to various divisions within the Metropolitan Police Department placed throughout the Dutchtown neighborhood. Cops Care Libraries will be stocked, maintained and cared for by St. Louis police officers. The books are free for children of all ages to enjoy.

Cops Care Libraries were donated by the family of the late Paul Reiter

Join Chief Sam Dotson,
First District Captain Dan Howard

&

First District Juvenile Project Grant Director Laura Novara

on

Wednesday, December 4

11:00 a.m.

Dutchtown Gardens
at Virginia and Liberty

Take A Book • Keep A Book