mission

OUR MISSION

The mission of the Metropolitan Police Department, City of St. Louis is to protect, serve and assist citizens when conditions arise that may affect the well being of the individual or the community. Cooperating with others in the community, officers will work to prevent and detect crime, protect life and property and achieve a peaceful society, free from the fear of crime and disorder. Members of the Department will strive continually for excellence and maintain the peace through service, integrity, leadership and fair treatment to all.

Core Values

SERVICE | INTEGRITY | LEADERSHIP | FAIR TREATMENT TO ALL

A Statement of the Value of Human Life

The primary responsibility of this Department and each of its members is to protect the lives of the citizens we are sworn to serve. It is also the duty of each member of the Department to honor the established principles of democracy upon which this country was founded. Among these is the most profound reverence for human life, the value of which far exceeds that of any property. In view of this, it is essential that every action of this Department and of each of its members be consistent with that responsibility.

For these reasons, it is appropriate that this Statement on the Value of Human Life preface the Police Manual, which embodies the spirit of the Department and sets forth the principles and policies which guide the conduct of every Department employee.

In recognition, therefore, of the commitment of this Department to the preservation of human life and because of the public trust which empowers sworn police officers to lawfully exercise force, even deadly force when required, in carrying out that commitment, it is hereby declared to be the policy of this Department that (1) the use of deadly force will never be condoned as a routine response; and (2) police officers will exercise the highest degree of care in the application of such force.

In 2012, overall crime in the City of St. Louis continued to decline. When it comes to the most serious violent crime, the city once again achieved record low numbers.

The Metropolitan Police Department, City of St. Louis, reported 27, 853 Part I Crimes in 2012. This represents a 12.4 percent decrease compared to 2011 when there were 31,811 reported Part I Crimes. Crime in the City of St. Louis has gone down double the national average which is a direct result of focused patrol and hot spot policing. While we are pleased with our progress, we must continue our efforts to ensure citizens and visitors are safe in our community.

Included in the subsequent pages of the 2012 Annual Report to the Community is an overview of the police department's leadership, crime statistics, financial statement and news headlines for your review.

SLMPD Participates in MoDOT's Occupant Protection Initiative

In February, the Department participated in the Missouri Department of Transportation's (MoDOT) "Occupant Protection" enforcement day. During this initiative, the public was warned that there would be no tolerance for seat belt violators and educated the public on the deadly consequences of not wearing a seat-belt. SLMPD, along with other agencies across the state, participated in the initiative.

St. Louis Police Academy earns CALEA® Accreditation

On March 26, Chief Dan Isom announced that the St. Louis Police Academy successfully earned accreditation by the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies, Inc. (CALEA®). To achieve this accreditation, the Academy met 158 applicable "best practice" standards in a range of areas. It is the second training academy in the state to become CALEA® accredited. This was also the first time in its history that the St. Louis Police Academy has been awarded this honor.

26th Annual Memorial Breakfast

The Department hosted the 26th Annual Memorial Breakfast, sponsored by the St. Louis Police Foundation, on May 26. The breakfast is hosted to honor the 164 police officers killed in the line of duty from 1863 to 2011. Missouri Lieutenant Governor Peter Kinder served as the keynote speaker and more than 1100 guests were in attendance. The breakfast also served as a celebration for National Police

Week, which is held May 13-19 and pays tribute to officers in the United State who have made the ultimate sacrifice.

SLMPD Crime Lab stages Mock Crime Scene

On June 25, the Department staged a mock crime scene in order to test the skills of officers interested in becoming part of the Evidence Technician Unit. The training tested the officers on their ability and knowledge in the areas of DNA, Drug Chemistry, Firearms, Latent Prints, Photography and evidence packaging procedures. This new training component was part of the Department's ongoing efforts to have the ETU discipline accredited as part of the overall lab re-accreditation assessment later in 2012.

Grand Opening of PAL Boxing Gymnasium

On August 24, the Department's Police Athletic League (PAL) hosted a ribbon cutting ceremony for the grand opening of its new PAL Boxing Gymnasium. The gymnasium is located at Innovative Concept Academy and will serve as a location for PAL boxers to learn basic and advanced boxing skills as well as improve their physical conditioning and mental discipline. PAL is a volunteer based program that provides children in St. Louis with low-cost athletic, educational and cultural programs.

Highway Named in Honor of Fallen Officer

In August, a portion of Interstate 55 was renamed “Julius K. Moore Memorial Highway” in honor of SLMPD fallen officer Julius Moore. Officer Moore passed away in 2009 after suffering an injury in an on-duty vehicle accident while responding to a call to assist fellow Third District officers in a burglary suspect pursuit.

On August 25, members of the Department, officials from the City of St. Louis and the state of Missouri, as well as friends and family of Officer Moore gathered in Kiener Plaza for a dedication ceremony and to remember a fallen officer.

St. Louis Police Foundation’s 5th Annual Fall Sports Kickoff Luncheon

The St. Louis Police Foundation celebrated its 5th year at the Annual Fall Sports Kickoff Luncheon on September 4. Sports broadcaster Joe Buck, Hall of Famers Dan Dierdorf and Ozzie Smith, along with Chief Dan Isom were featured at the event. More than 750 people were in attendance. The event also featured a Police Expo, which displayed some of the technology officers use in their daily jobs, including an armored vehicle and a robot used by the Bomb & Arson Unit. Officers from the Canine Unit also gave special presentations.

Chief Dan Isom Announce his Retirement

On October 1, Chief Dan Isom announced his retirement from the Department. Chief Isom served the Department for 24 years and as Chief of Police for 4 of those years. His last months serving as Chief was focused on addressing crime, finalizing plans for the new headquarters and assisting in implementing many new changes for the Department. He retired on January 1, 2013.

Board of Police Commissioners begins Search for New Police Chief

Following Chief Isom’s decision to retire, the St. Louis Board of Police Commissioners held neighborhood forums to allow citizens the opportunity to provide input on the selection of the next Chief. Three 90-minute forums were held on November 7, November 8, and November 13 in various areas of the city. Many citizens attended and voiced their opinions on qualities they believed the next leader of the Police Department should possess.

Canine Graduation

On November 16, the Department honored three officers and their canines that successfully completed the St. Louis Metropolitan Police Canine School in a graduation ceremony. Three officers from different agencies completed the course, including SLMPD Officer Jermaine Jackson and his canine partner, Barron Z. Officer Jackson and his classmates were trained alongside their canines for 14 weeks and received special instruction in narcotics and patrol. The Department's canine unit was formed in 1958 and is one of the oldest and most well-respected canine units in the United States.

Another Accreditation for the Crime Lab

In November, the Department's Crime Laboratory announced that it had successfully completed its accreditation process and was awarded accreditation by the American Society of Crime Laboratory Directors/Laboratory Accreditation Board (ASCLD/LAB) for the first time in history. The Crime Lab achieved this honor by demonstrating that it met or exceeded the highest established standards for forensic laboratories. The SLMPD Crime Lab is one of only 250 labs accredited under the International Testing Program in the country.

Chief Isom's Last Roll Call

On December 4 at Headquarters, the Department honored Chief Daniel Isom at a last roll call ceremony. Many members of the community, local and state dignitaries, Department employees and friends offered kind words about Chief Isom and his strong work ethic. Chief Isom dedicated 24 years of service to the Department and the citizens of the community. Chief Isom retired on January 1, 2013 to join the Criminology Department at the University of Missouri- St. Louis

Captain D. Samuel Dotson named Chief of Police

Following Chief Isom's retirement announcement, the Board of Police Commissioners began the selection process for Chief of Police, with 11 candidates submitting applications. On December 14, after much consideration, the Board named Captain D. Samuel Dotson the city's new Chief of Police. Chief Dotson is a 17-year veteran of the Department and has served within numerous divisions.
